ATTEMPTED MURDER

Assaulted, Robbed and Left For Dead—Will the Perpetrators
Be Punished?

James Williams, an industrious and respectable young farmer residing with his parents on Hickory Ridge, Brown county, Ohio, came to this city Saturday to spend the day and have a good time, as the boys term it.

Being a stranger it is not supposed that he should know who were and who were not of the right kind in forming his acquaintances for the day. That he fell in with a lot of wolves—and there are some here ever ready to pounce upon just such lambs and fleece them of their wool—is apparent from the manner in which he was treated.

He was flush of money and a liberal spender, and during the afternoon and up to a late hour the three rascals he had in tow had a picnic without costing them a cent.

It was midnight when he concluded to return to the Ohio side, and when he spoke of blowing the horn for the ferryman to carry him across to the opposite shore, the trio very promptly offered to perform that service, as they had a skiff at hand and would be only too glad to accommodate him, as he had shown them a good time.

The four men entered the skiff and started for Aberdeen. Williams says that he noted that the boat was drifting down considerably but attributed it to the current.

A landing was made just above the creek, near some willows. After getting out, he says his suspicion was aroused by their queer maneuvers, but before he thoroughly realized his danger he was struck a terrific blow, knocking him senseless.

When he revived he heard one of them say, "Let's throw him into the river," another, after placing his hand on his breast to see if he was breathing, replied, "Never mind, he's dead as a h—l." Williams says while the fellow had his hand on his breast he lay as still as death, and never once drew a breath.

The robbers got about $35 and a gold watch. Sunday morning the man's face presented an awful appearance,—one eye was closed and his whole face was discolored. He says he knows two of the party.

Nothing should be left undone to bring the guilty ones to justice. There needs to be a cleaning out of these dangerous and disreputable characters in this city.

Mr. Eugene Straus, Secretary, and Mr. L. W. Walter, Photographer of the Louisville Auto Club, accompanied by Mr. William Pirtel and Mr. Harris, pathfinders for a 350-mile automobile tour, were in the city yesterday making arrangements for the accommodation of several hundred people who will make the trip. The party will leave Louisville October 8th, returning on the 9th. There will be over fifty machines in line, making a novel and pretty sight. They will probably spend several hours in this city.

Y. Maxey of Earlington, Ky. The lovely bride was handsome in a beautiful, but simple white gown, with lace trimmings, carrying a large bunch of white roses, making a lovely and attractive appearance ever to be remembered in the hearts of all.

The house was beautifully decorated in green and white, the decorations being ferns, palms and roses. The wedding march expressing the talent of the accomplished player, Mrs. Nannie Cracraft, was beautiful.

The groom wore the usual conventional black, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Matthews of the Mayslick Christian Church.

The dining-room, where a delicious salad course was served, was also a feature of the wedding. Only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the couple were present, the occasion being an all-day affair.

The happy couple left over the L. and N., amid showers of good wishes, for Earlington, where Mr. Maxey is Principal of the new High School.

Trousers were not introduced into this country without a struggle—a struggle in which the great Duke of Wellington suffered his only defeat. For it is on record that in 1814 he was refused admission to Almack's "because he wore trousers instead of breeches and silk stockings." Next year trousers were admitted to Almack's and Wellington won Waterloo. —London Tatler.

The Record in Maysville Is a Unique One.

If the reader has a "bad back" or any kidney ill and is looking for relief and cure, better depend on the only remedy endorsed by people you know. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve quickly—cure permanently. Maysville citizens testify to this. Here is a case of it:

Mrs. Nathan A. Hafer, Maysville, Ky., says:

"My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills is so high that I have not the least hesitation in publicly recommending them. For ten years I was bothered by backache, during which time I tried various remedies without obtaining beneficial results. There was a constant, dull ache across my back, often accompanied by sharp rheumatic twinges throughout my body. I was also subject to nervous headaches and dizzy spells, and on arising in the morning felt very tired. My husband advised me to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, and I procured a box at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore. They proved very beneficial in any case and in a short time cured me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Saturday the Closing Day of the Germantown Fair a Hummer— Tremendous Crowd and Splendid Exhibition

The fifty-fifth annual exhibition of the Germantown Fair, which closed Saturday, marked another "red letter" day for this popular two-county fair, and every feature of the big show was just a little bit ahead of any similar event ever given on these noted grounds. There were fully seven thousand people present Saturday and the grounds and the surrounding avenues and fields were so thronged with people, animals and vehicles, that walking and driving were difficult. However, everybody was happy, as is customary at the Germantown Fair, and the big crowd was radiant with good humor and heartily enjoyed every feature of the exhibition, although old humidity was working the double action caloric machine at high pressure. The weather, otherwise, was perfect and the dust was not so thick in Old Kentucky as on many former occasions. The show of fruits, vegetables and domestic confections in the Floral Hall was as fine and inviting as ever beheld and showed that Dame Nature and the farmer and the industrious housewife are working harmoniously together for bumper crops and well stocked pantries and cellars.

The side attractions merited the easy patronage of the merry throng and every fader on the grounds was working industriously and overtime to make a golden harvest while the sun shone and the mercury flirted way up in the nineties.

In the arena the show of fine horses was never excelled and the cheering thousands in the big circular amphitheater made the welkin ring with wild enthusiasm as the beautiful Kentucky and Ohio thoroughbreds cantored around the ring. As to charming femininity, they were out by the thousands arrayed in all the glory of 'steen styles and colors, which produced a composite scene pleasing, interesting and characteristic of these annual occasions. Smittie's Band was there with the music and delivered the harmony article in a manner that added a double enjoyment and charm to the day. Handreds were out from Maysville, and the Maysville auto show in the arena, advertising the Buick cars of Kirk & Kirk, was not the least of the pleasing features. And the hallooatic went up at 4 o'clock, per balloon, and came down per parachute, on schedule time, much to the pleasure of the onlookers.

The splendid string of fine horses exhibited by L. T. Anderson of Point-a-View Stock Farm of Maysville almost made a clean sweep in the prize rings and were the admired of all lovers of beautiful animals. Wells Brothers of Mason county exhibited many superb animals, and won many premiums. Miss Bird Hamilton of Covington won a blue ribbon with her lovely little sorrel animal, one of the finest specimens of horse flesh ever seen in the ring.

The Anderson horses won 27 ribbons, a record which has hardly ever been equaled by one horseman, with the competition that he is up against at Germantown. He won in the fancy turnout ring, and his "Bride of the Mistletoe" won the $50 saddle and harness stake. In the sweepstakes saddle ring his Beau Brummel won the $50 prize, while the beauties, Smart and Ultra Smart, carried off many ribbons.

Charley Wells got first money in the three gaited ring; Harvey Durrum, first ribbon in gentleman's ride; W. A. Thompson first in pony ring.

AFTER SUFFERING TEN YEARS

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

MARLTON, N.J.—I feel that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has given me new life. I suffered for ten years with serious female troubles, inflammation, ulceration, indigestion, nervousness, and could not sleep. Doctors gave me up, as they said my troubles were chronic. I was in despair, and did not care whether I lived or died, when I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; so I began to take it, and am well again and relieved of all my suffering. —Mrs. GEORGE JORDY, Box 40, Marlton, N.J.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.
